

A photograph showing a silver laptop with the Windows logo on its lid, partially open, next to a book with a textured cover. The laptop is on a light-colored surface.

OUTLINE

To compare and contrast two works from black clock 19

Topic: To equate and distinct two works from Black Clock 19

Purpose: The aim of the study is to compare and contrast two works from black clock 19

Purpose Statement: The works from Black Clock 19 offers a good example of literature that targets different purposes. The different stories in the collection compare in numerous areas including mood, themes, and characterization. There are also countable differences presented by different authors.

Thesis: The paper will compare and contrast two works from Black Clock 19 works to offer a clear understanding of the stories and literature at large.

Attention Getter: Literature is part of human life. On a daily basis, individuals encounter literature in their residents, offices, and the surroundings at large.

- I. Paragraph One: Introduction.
- II. Paragraph Two: Kinds of moods in the stories
- III. Paragraph Three: Characterization
- IV. Paragraph Four: Motive and theme
- V. Paragraph Five: Conclusion

Works Cited